

Joanna Rayford graduated from Northeast Community College in 2003. She moved to Lincoln and worked at the Nebraska Heart Hospital for several years before moving to Omaha and then back to her hometown of Randolph in 2009. Joanna worked at Faith Regional Hospital in Norfolk in cardiopulmonary, the cardiac catheterization lab and cardiac clinic for over 5 years. She was looking for something more challenging and was interested in pursuing management when she took the position as Director of Providence Home Healthcare and Hospice.

Joanna has worked at Providence Medical Center for 7 years. She graduated from the Nebraska Hospital Association Leadership Institute in 2018.

Joanna said, “I appreciate the nomination for the Secretary position.”
