

Shelly Koch is a dedicated healthcare leader with over 15 years of experience at Good Samaritan Society, where she currently serves as Vice President overseeing Home Health, Hospice, and Private Care Services across 30 agencies in 12 different states. With a Master's degree in Nurse Executive, Shelly combines her clinical expertise with strategic leadership to enhance the quality of care and operational efficiency within her organization.

In addition to her leadership roles, Shelly is an active advocate for the healthcare community, writing letters to CMS about critical issues impacting Home Health, Hospice, and Private Care services and meeting with leaders to drive meaningful change. Her commitment to excellence in nursing leadership earned her notable recognitions, including being honored as a recipient of the 40 under 40 nurse leader award and McKnight's Woman of Distinction award.

Shelly's passion for improving patient outcomes and her extensive experience make her an exceptional candidate for the Board, where she will continue to advocate for innovation and excellence in healthcare.
